

ANNOUNCEMENT

June 2019

Cumberland Private Wealth Management Inc. (“Cumberland Private Wealth”), one of Canada’s leading independent wealth management firms and a trusted fiduciary for families, individuals and foundations, is pleased to announce that Susanne Alexandor has joined us as Client Portfolio Manager*.

Ms. Alexandor brings 30 years of global investment management experience to our firm.

“We are very excited to have Susanne Alexandor join our senior team of client portfolio managers as we deepen our commitment to delivering investment management excellence, sophisticated wealth management and a personalized, high touch experience to our clients,” states Charlie Sims, Chief Executive Officer of Cumberland Private Wealth. “We aim to continue to be at the forefront of a changing Canadian investment and wealth management landscape so our clients can achieve their financial and life goals for the future.”

Ms. Alexandor’s investment experience has spanned the full spectrum of global capital markets and asset classes in varying regimes, with roles as a discretionary global portfolio manager and advisor to both private and institutional clients. She has held positions with leading firms in major financial centers around the world, with her most recent experience at a boutique firm specializing in global tactical asset allocation investment strategies. As a regular media commentator and industry panelist, she enjoys communicating on the many facets and complexities of the asset management world.

Susanne Alexandor is originally from Germany, but was raised and began her career in the U.S. She earned a BA in Economics and German from Rutgers University. During her time in Toronto, she has been actively engaged in a variety of community and philanthropic initiatives.

For more information about Ms. Alexandor or Cumberland Private Wealth, please call us at 416-929-1090 or visit us at cumberlandprivate.com.

*Subject to regulatory approval.

About Cumberland Private Wealth

Founded over two decades ago, Cumberland Private Wealth Management Inc. is a leading independent investment firm that provides discretionary investment management and wealth management services for high net worth individuals, their families and foundations, with $1 million or more in investable assets typically. All of Cumberland’s investment mandates are centered on building and preserving our clients’ financial wealth.

Cumberland Private Wealth is privately-owned by its employees and headquartered in Toronto, Canada.

Go Far. Together.