

Key Benefits

- To provide a steady income stream through fixed income investing
- Capital preservation while mitigating risk exposure from both an interest rate risk and credit risk perspective
- Diversified portfolio of bonds by sector, issuer and maturity

Highlights for the Month

- US/China trade wars entered into a quiet period for the month of June as Trump focused on threatening tariffs on Europe, Mexico and India and investors became very concerned of new trade wars; however, the strong Canadian CPI data helped offset some of those concerns and we saw 2 to 10 year rates move up 0.4bps to 5bps and greater than 10 year rates moved lower 3bps to 5bps. As the search for yield continued, corporate spreads tightened anywhere between 7bps to 11bps across tenors and rating categories.
- The bond universe returned +91bps on the month, while the corporate bond index returned +106bps. The best performing segment was long corporate bonds (+248bps), while the worse performing segment was short government bonds (+2bps). Canadian High Yield returned +70bps and the BMO Laddered Preferred ETF returned +34bps.
- We underperformed our benchmark for the month as we posted returns of +49bps and +53bps for Series A and M, respectively, while our benchmark returned +66bps. The main laggards were being short Government of Canada bonds and our investments in Crew Energy and Nuvista.
- The portfolio's duration was shorter at 2 years vs. 2.3 years at the end of May as purchase yield was also lower at 4.13% vs 4.17%.
